

God's Providence

Leader: “We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.” (Rom 8:28-29)

All: “The promises of the Lord I will sing forever, proclaim your loyalty through all ages.” (Ps 89:2-3)

Leader: “The God who began this work will see it through to its completion, provided we put no obstacles in the way of his designs.” (Basil Moreau)

All: “The promises of the Lord I will sing forever, proclaim your loyalty through all ages.” (Ps 89:2-3)

Leader: “Let us not forget that the development of the work entrusted to us depends upon our acceptance of the inspirations of grace and of our fidelity in seconding the designs of Divine Providence.” (Basil Moreau)

All: “The promises of the Lord I will sing forever, proclaim your loyalty through all ages.” (Ps 89:2-3)

Leader: “Providence never fails to provide for all the necessities of those who, by fidelity to their duties, abandon themselves to its guidance, even if it becomes necessary to send angels to help them.” (Basil Moreau)

All: “The promises of the Lord I will sing forever, proclaim your loyalty through all ages.” (Ps 89:2-3)

Leader: “Providence rules everything so gently here that it tries to balance evil with good. So that we will not fall victims to discouragement or pride, it places us...on a scale which alternately lifts us up and then lowers us...It is quite true that Eternal Wisdom has arranged all things with strength and mildness...The important point for us is to accept everything with equal conformity to the will of God.” (Basil Moreau)

All: “The promises of the Lord I will sing forever, proclaim your loyalty through all ages.” (Ps 89:2-3)

Leader:

Let us pray,

Loving and Provident God, Basil Moreau trusted in your Loving Presence in all that he did and in all that he experienced. Increase our faith and hope in you. Help us to be messengers of your loving providence. We ask this through Jesus your Son.

All:

Amen.
